Time was given to discussing the remaining steps of finalizing the text of the Tenth Report to be issued at the end of the current mandate

November 6, 2020 - Zoom meeting

The Executive discussed the two studies with recommendations to the churches, which the JWG has undertaken, on "Peacebuilding in Situations of Conflict" and "Migrants and Refugees – Ecumenical Challenges and Opportunities". Since the last meeting both documents had been revised in light of the new situation caused by the pandemic and the revisions have been approved. Members of the Executive then discussed the Tenth Report to be issued at the end of the current mandate. It was recognized that the text of the Report reflects well the work accomplished although it requires an update given the extension of the mandate of the JWG, as well as further improvement regarding the content and style

February 3, 2021 - Zoom meeting

Executive Committee meeting discussed the Tenth Report to be issued at the end of the current mandate, together with two study documents "Peace is a Treasure for All. Peace-building in Situations of Conflict and Violence" and "Migrants and Refugees – Ecumenical Challenges and Opportunities". All three documents are in the final stage of preparation. They will be sent to the members of the JWG for comments. It is expected that the plenary of the JWG will approve them during its next meeting scheduled for April 2021

49. April 12-16, 2021 - Zoom meeting

"The JWG plenary met virtually (the meeting had been previously scheduled to be held in Brussels). The agenda of the final plenary meeting of the present JWG mandate included: a) an exchange of information on the recent activities of the parent bodies during the COVID-19 pandemic; b) an updating on the preparation of the 11th WCC General Assembly to be held in 2022 as well as on the process for the official reception of the JWG Final Report (presentation by Charlotte Belot and Dr. Georges Lemopoulos); c) final revision, discussion and approval of the Final Report on the work of the JWG and the two study documents, all updated in the light of the Covid-19 pandemic situation. All the three documents: the Tenth Report entitled 'Walking, Praying and Working Together. An Ecumenical Pilgrimage', the two study documents studies with recommendations to the churches: 'Peace is a Treasure for All – An Ecumenical Reflection on Peace Building in Situations of Conflict and Violence' and 'Migrants and Refugees – Ecumenical Challenges and Opportunities' had been formally approved and received by the JWG plenary in order to be presented to the parent bodies for approval"
