

LUTHERAN-PENTECOSTAL STUDY GROUP

LUTHERANS AND PENTECOSTALS IN DIALOGUE

2010

I. Introduction

II. Goals

1. To think and Speak Appropriately about the Other, Not Bearing False Witness against Each Other
2. To Be Mutually Enriched by Each Other's Traditions
3. To Provide Opportunities for Mutual Correction
4. To Enable Cooperation In Ministry, Mission and Social Outreach
5. To Resolve and Avoid Conflicts between Our Churches

III: Insights and Analysis

1. Starting Points
2. How Do We Encounter Christ?
3. How Do We Encounter Christ in Proclamation?
4. How Do We Encounter Christ in the Sacraments or Ordinances?
5. How Do We Encounter Christ ion Charisms?

IV. History

1. Introducing Lutheranism to Pentecostals
2. Introducing Pentecostals to Lutherans
3. Lutheran Reactions to Pentecostalism: A U.S. Case Study

LUTHERAN-PENTECOSTAL STUDY GROUP PARTICIPANTS

Pentecostal

Jean-Daniel Plüss, co-chair
Cecil M. Robeck, Jr.
Veli-Matti Kärkkäinen
Edmund Rybarczyk
Nico Horn
Tham Wan Yee

Lutheran

Kenneth G. Appold, Co-chair
Theodor Dieter
Matti Repo
Sarah Hinklicky Wilson

Text may be found at:

[BEST, THOMAS F., LORELEI F. FUCHS, JOHN GIBAUT, JEFFREY GROS, DESPINA PRASSAS. Edd. Growth in Agreement IV. International Dialogues Texts and Agreed Statements, 2004-2014. Faith and Order Paper 219. (Geneva: WCC Publications, 2017), Book 2 73-110.]

and

[<https://www.strasbourg-institute.org/wp-content/uploads/2012/08/Lutherans-and-Pentecostals-in-Dialogue-Text-FINAL.pdf>]

[Lutherans and Pentecostals in Dialogue. (Strasbourg: Institute for Ecumenical Research, 2010).]